PPTAP: Computing and Software Roadmap Workshop Close

Neil Chue Hong (Edinburgh)
and Tim Scanlon (UCL)

20th July 2021

Workshop Close

- ❖ Many thanks to:
  - ➢ All the speakers and chairs
  - ➢ Everyone who filled in the survey and took part in the discussion
  - ➢ All who entered feedback into the Google Document
- ❖ This has all provided us with a wealth of information and input to craft the first draft of the S&C R&D roadmap

- ❖ Next steps
  - ➢ Will review all the information and feedback we've collected
    - ■ Use it to produce first draft of S&C R&D roadmap
  - ➢ The first draft of the document will be circulated to all workshop participants
    - ■ Document will be open for people to post comments
  - ➢ Feedback will be incorporated in 2nd version
    - ■ Will also be circulated to all participants for comment
  - ➢ Used to produce final version to be integrated into the overall PPTAP report
    - ■ People will also be invited to comment on the final PPTAP report

- ❖ Many thanks for attending and we hope people have a relaxing summer
